President's Message

Thank You

To my Rotary Team,

I feel like the past several week's letters have been a call to arms. Rousing our passion for the Golf and Tennis Tournament, Blood Drive, Backpack Collection, Sweeping the Hooch and the list goes on.

This week I will take a brief pause to say, "Thank You." Thank each of you for your sincerity and your personal efforts to make our community and this world a better place. Compassion and drive are a potent combination for results – but they take energy and time.

We are Rotarians and, more fundamentally, we are good people doing good things as a team.

Thank you for your energy. Thank you for your time. Charge on!

Why Roswell Rotarians Will Be Donating Blood

"When discussing health insurance, I hear people say that they're not worried about staying healthy, they just don't want to be sick," shared Hal Schlenger. "Yet we know that's nice until……happens." Having a blood bank is the same having a retirement account and other financial planning, except only 37% of us can donate. Please help keep our local bank solvent.

Charity Spotlight

The Drake House

Mission:

The Drake House is a short-term crisis housing, education and empowerment program for homeless mothers and their children, designed to assist the family in working toward housing self-sufficiency.

Fast Facts:

- Founded in 2004 as a Leadership North Fulton class project to address the growing number of homeless women and children in the area. The doors opened in 2006.
- Named in honor of Roswell native Mary Drake, a founder of North Fulton Community Charities.
- The Drake House assists families toward becoming financially stable, contributing members of the community through a variety of programs, including:
    - Housing and food, so families can remain in the community and children can remain in their current schools
    - Preserving the family unit (boys over the age of 12 are allowed to remain with their family, rather than go to a men’s shelter)

    - Children and teen after-school enrichment programs
    - Life skills, education, and empowerment planning for adults
    - Career coaching including assistance with resume development, interviewing skills, clothing, skills development, career seminars, and job leads
- Each year, the organization’s private housing serves approximately 50 families and 100 children.
- The Drake House has served over 350 families with more than 650 children since opening its doors.
