President's Message

A girl just wants to have FUN!

One of the best things about being President of Roswell Rotary is my involvement with the multiple service projects.

Last Saturday was a fun filled morning with an Easter Egg Hunt at the Drake House. We hid eight hundred eggs. Yes, eight hundred eggs! Seeing the smiles as the kids hunted for the candy filled eggs will always be engrained in my heart.

At Harvey Smith's place, a group was priming picnic tables that soon will be distributed to what Leslie Bassett refers to as "the paint by numbers group". No one complained about the paint that somehow covered their shoes, clothes, much less their bodies. All for a good cause.

Another day of service with Roswell Rotarians. What fun!

Born and raised in Roswell, Langdon Hollingsworth is an Industrial Engineer who has dedicated his professional career to public service. After graduation from Georgia Tech, he spent two years living in the remote Darien province of Panama working for a clean water nonprofit, Solea Water, that brought fresh drinking water to thousands of people across the country. He was heavily involved in the expansion of Solea Water by developing a partnership with the local nonprofit, Lunches for Learning, that raised funds to install community-sized filters in four schools in the Nacaome Valley. Now in graduate school studying Humanitarian Logistics and Business Administration, Langdon hopes to learn a new set of valuable skills that can be applied to increase the efficiency of non-profits operating both locally, and in Latin America.

Charity Spotlight

The Cottage School

Mission:

To build a sense of self for students with special learning needs through academic and experiential programming, and to prepare individuals for fulfillment of their true potential as confident, productive, and independent adults.

Fast Facts:

• The Cottage School was founded in 1985 by Rotarians Jacque and Joe Digieso as an alternative to traditional academic models.

• TCS is fully accredited by AdvanceEd, for SAIS and SACS serving students from 4th grade through high school.

• TCS was named by the Masters in Special Education Resource Guide as one of their Top 50 Best Private Special Needs Schools in the United States.

• TCS provides a comprehensive academic college preparatory curriculum that meets Georgia high school graduation standards and HOPE scholarship requirements.

• By providing a balanced blend of academic and experiential programming, students acquire a strong sense of their individual skill set and develop the confidence to venture into areas of academics, athletics, and social interaction that, in the past, may have seemed beyond their reach.

• TCS Interact Club is very active participating with the Atlanta Humane Society, Be The Voice, and Relay for Life North Fulton among other initiatives.

• Numerous Rotarians have been involved in TCS since its beginning including several Rotarians who currently serve on the TCS Board of Directors.
